

THE EASTERN PENNSYLVANIA & DELAWARE CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN CONCRETE INSTITUTE

ANNOUNCES ITS ANNUAL

STUDENT BEAM COMPETITION

To be held on Saturday, April 7, 2018 at 9:30 AM at
Widener University Structures Lab
E. 17th St. & Melrose Ave., Chester, Pennsylvania

Challenge:

Design and construct a 4 ½" x 3" concrete beam reinforced with steel bars to span 3'-0". The beam will be subjected to a concentrated load at mid span and tested to failure.

Prizes:

Highest Ultimate Load	$1,500
Most Accurate Prediction of Loads	$1,500

Eligibility:

Undergraduate students enrolled at any college or university.

Additional Information:

For further information including an entry application and complete rules, please log on to the chapter website at www.epdaci.org or contact:

Steve Cole, EPDACI Student Beam Competition Chairman
Phone: 267-280-2997 Email: steve.a.cole@verizon.net

Part I of the Official Entry Form must be received no later than March 12, 2018
Part II of the Official Entry Form must be received no later than April 2, 2018

